YOUR MONTHLY ROUNDUP

Pears by Elizabeth Hallows

Hello from aaaart.online,

Above is a watercolour by Liz Hallows, AAA's President. After a year of moving house (after house after house) Liz is getting back into producing art. Have a look at more of Liz' work on our website.

We have two new members:

Anne Gitsham and a (returning member) Sue Dennis . Welcome ladies! Neither are on the website yet — yet both exhibiting with us at An Alliance of Colour.

Our next exhibition is in less than a week!

An Alliance of Color: the Exhibition at Bribie Island Community Art Centre

Our next exhibition is at the Matthew Flinders Gallery at the Bribie Island Community Centre 24 May - 5 June.

We have 12 of our artists going into this exhibition, including:

Graeme Love, Jenny Newbound, Karan Gerard, Patricia Wheatstone, Jill Meyers, Elizabeth Hallows, Molly Galpin, David Hook , Sergei Londar, Sue Dennis, Anne Gitsham, Lyndon Hallows

It's a beautiful gallery. We will be showcasing over 120 paintings and 3D objects. To help us BICAS has placed an advert for us in the Bribie Islander (the local paper), has been distributing our flyers for us and has sent information about the exhibition to their membership. Thank you to BICAS for your support! I've also written an editorial for the Bribie Islander and provided pictures. I've contacted Caboolture 101.5 FM who have agreed to do radio spots for us. They may even interview us during the exhibition which will be exciting. Hopefully this will draw in plenty of visitors so good luck to us all!

Gala opening: Friday, 27 May 6-8pm. Entertainment, Beverage on arrival and canapés. Come along and wish the artists good luck! Click below for tickets.

A letter to us from Bribie —

Hi Artist Alliance

I would like to invite your artists to enter the Bribie Island Community Arts Centre Matthew Flinders Art Prize Exhibition this year.

It is a prestigious OPEN competition, for all mediums (except video) with $9000 prize money on offer. Information is on our BICAS website:

<https://www.bribieartscentre.com.au/matthewflindersartprize2022>

Prizes are awarded on opening night Friday July 15 at the Arts Centre. There is also an opportunity for artists to demonstrate at an art table in the foyer on a morning or afternoon, which can serve as promotion. Feel free to display flyers and information during this time.

If you would like more information, please email the planning committee chairman, Steph White on info@bribieartscentre.com.au.

Cheers

Kelly Vass

Calling all Oil Painters! Such a Deal for you!

As you know, Graeme Love has been some health issues including Parkinson's. His Parkinson's has gotten to a point where he can no longer paint. He would like to give away his oils and painting equipment to someone in the Alliance ... where he knows they will get used. He also has a small art storage cabinet available. Pick in Birtinya. Contact Graeme at gralove78@gmail.com or 0409 087 157 if you are interested.

Did you know? Molly and I are both in the Immanuel Arts Festival (refer below) which starts on the 20 May. If you're in the area, check it out! Let me know what other exhibitions you may be in so I can put this on the website.

aaaart.online's next exhibition: at Kenilworth July 22-24

Kenilworth Arts Council is so looking forward to our exhibition in July. They are attempting to get a grant to purchase 30 placards that will be posted around town to advertise this exhibition. aaaart.online is purchasing a teardrop banner to place outside the entrance. Flyers advertising the exhibition are already being distributed. Kenilworth is a very large space — we fit over 240 artworks in there last year. So get painting! this is one you won't want to miss.

Have a great month! -Karan
